

The successful man early in life learned the value of a smile.

Perhaps the self-made man could do better if given another chance.

DEATHS

Life Is But A Brief Span, A Debt That All Must Pay

WISE

Funeral services for Dorothy Jean Wise, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wise, who died at the home of her parents, in Cincinnati, were held at the grave in the Paris Cemetery, Friday morning. Mrs. Spears Moore and Miss Ruby Jane Houston, of Paris, are sisters of Mrs. Wise.

PRYOR

William Pryor, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Pryor, former residents of Bourbon county, died in Washington. The body was taken to his old home in Shelbyville, Indiana, for interment. Young Pryor went overseas during the world war, and was wounded in one of the engagements in France, from the effects of which he never fully recovered. His uncle, Jack Pryor, of Paris, attended the funeral and burial. He was a nephew of Mrs. W. P. Jett, of Paris, and Mrs. William Huffman, of Newtown.

SMITH

Funeral services for Noah Smith, aged eighty-two, who died at his home in Columbia, Mo., were held at the grave in the Georgetown Cemetery, Friday, conducted by Prof. W. C. Bower, assisted by Rev. Rodney McQuerry. The pallbearers were: Brack Smith, Chas. Layton, Chas. Smith, Wm. Smith, Fred Craumbaugh and George Sabel. The body was accompanied by his niece, Mrs. Hattie Elkins Hillson, who returned to her home in Columbia immediately after the funeral.

Mr. Smith was a native of Bourbon county, and left in 1878 for Missouri, where he resided to the time of his death. He was an uncle of Wm. Smith, superintendent of the Paris Cemetery, and has many relatives in this county.

HUME

Following a protracted illness due to a complication of diseases, Wm. P. Hume, aged about seventy, died at the Massie Memorial Hospital, in this city, at a late hour Thursday night.

Mr. Hume was for many years prominently identified with the agricultural interests of the county, having been engaged in farming until a few years ago, when he moved to Paris, purchasing property on Second street, which he and his family occupied until the death of his wife, when he went to live with his son, D. Hume, and family. In early life Mr. Hume was married to Miss Sallie Bacon, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bacon, of Paris, who preceded him to the grave many years ago. To this union two children were born, Mrs. Oscar Donaldson, of Idaho, and Mrs. D. Hume, of this city, both of whom survive. He was married a second time, his second wife, Mrs. Sue Gass Hume, dying a few years ago. He was a brother-in-law of Miss Clara Bacon and J. W. Bacon, of Paris, W. A. Bacon, of Gallon, Alabama, and Otis Bacon, of Texas, and has numerous relatives throughout the county.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon at three o'clock, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church. The pallbearers were: Active: Frank Skillman, J. Simms Wilson, J. W. Bacon, James McClure, D. M. Frederickson, John M. Clay; honorary: Dr. Wm. Kenney, Dr. J. A. Stoeckinger, Jos. Leach, John M. Leach.

HERRIN

John W. Herrin, aged about sixty, eldest son of the late Mrs. Sallie Herrin, of Paris, died at his home near Stamping Ground, in Scott county, last week, following an operation performed at the Kings Daughters Hospital, in Frankfort. Mr. Herrin was a native of Bourbon county, but had been a resident of Scott county for the past thirty years. He was a brother of Edward, Jess and Thomas Herrin, and of Mrs. William Farris, and Mrs. Marion Leach, all of Paris. Besides these members of the family Mr. Herrin is survived by his widow, who was before her marriage Miss Sallie Samuels, of Stamping Ground.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon at two o'clock, at the family home in Stamping Ground, with services conducted by Dr. W. L. Shearer, pastor of the Baptist church, assisted by Dr. George R. Waggoner, pastor of the Christian church. The interment followed on the family lot in the Stamping Ground Cemetery. The pallbearers were: Dr. Wm. Salin, Dr. A. Stewart, W. S. Yates, B. S. Calvert, T. E. Gayle and V. C. Robinson.

SPEARS

A message from Dr. Llewellyn Spears, in Louisville, yesterday, to Paris relatives, told of the death in Kingston, New York, yesterday morning of Mrs. Keith Spears McClintock, a former resident of this city. Mrs. McClintock had been a resident of Kingston for several years. The telegram gave no particulars.

Mrs. McClintock was about sixty years old, and was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spears

HEY, FELLERS!

Have You Seen Those Stilts
Walsh's are Giving Away With Every Boy's Suit Sold?

Yes, sir! A good, strong pair of stilts is given with every boy's suit, regardless of price, and they are adjustable to three sizes—close to the ground or higher up. They will coax every muscle in the body into play and improve health.

And say, boys! Tell your mothers that the kind of clothes we sell are the kind that stand up under rough wear and rough exercise, such as walking stilts, playing foot ball and every-day-play.

You'll like the models we are showing—some like the cut—designed and tailored by master tailors who understand what boys want. Good wearing fabrics are found in newest patterns and colorings.
